Elizabeth Williams-Riley

“You never know how much your past will affect your future until it shows up in your present.”

Elizabeth Williams-Riley is the founder of D.A.S.H. Consulting LLC, where her primary focus is Developing Assets for Successful Habits (D.A.S.H.). D.A.S.H., LLC, works in partnership with clients to develop comprehensive inclusion, diversity, equity, and accessibility (IDEA) learning, critical analysis, strategy-building, strategy execution, coaching, and planning. Elizabeth is the former President and CEO for the American Conference on Diversity and the National Vice President of Programs for the National Conference for Community and Justice.

Elizabeth is an award-winning diversity and inclusion professional. She was named Girls Scouts of America 2015 Woman of Distinction, and 2013 Diversity Journal's Woman Worth Watching. Mrs. Williams-Riley is the 2016 NAACP Corporate Community Service Award Winner and she also received the South Asian Business Association Network

(SABAN) Chairman's Award. She is a connector and helps individuals navigate the complexities of living in an increasingly diverse society. She boldly tackles the nation's unfinished business of diversity, equity, and inclusion. Her approach to dismantling systemic and institutional oppression is charismatic, engaging, and above all, thought-provoking.

She is a sought-after D&I speaker, facilitator, and trainer working with companies from the public and private sectors to implement IDEA initiatives. She provides organizational development assistance, board development, executive coaching, curriculum, and program design. Her national publication features include Diversity Best Practices, InSight Diversity, and Diversity Journal. Mrs. Williams-Riley was a panelist at LinkedIn "DayIN" Trailblazers in Diversity forum and featured workshop presenter L'Oréal USA Executive Women's Leadership Conference. Mrs. Williams-Riley presented at Regional and National Conventions for the Young Democrats of America. Mrs. Williams-Riley was a featured presenter at the Forum on Workplace Inclusion.

Her media appearances are for outstanding work with youth and adults to challenge stereotypes and create change agents. These include NBC, PBS, 1450 WCTC, New Jersey 101.5 Dennis & Judi Show, Hot 97 Street Soldiers w/ Lisa Evers, Caucus New Jersey, Think Tank with Steve Aduato, NJ Thirteen, Princeton TV, York Sun, and Comcast News Makers.

Elizabeth specializes in customized DEI training, strategic planning, and experiential learning. She has worked with many of the nation's leading fortune 500 companies, foundations, colleges, and universities. Her work also expands into the finance, legal services profession, government, the arts, law enforcement, and education, healthcare, nonprofit, civic, and faith/religious sectors.
